Questions for Families

Here are some questions you can discuss with the whole family.

Acts 9:1-19

What does this Scripture about Saul and Jesus tell us about who God is?

Guide for Discussion: For younger children, talk about how God is loving and powerful enough to change even the biggest troubles into good things. Older children can discuss how God is always reaching out to people, even those who might seem too far gone, and how He is willing to forgive and give new chances.

How do you think Saul's change on the road to Damascus helps us think about ourselves?

Guide for Discussion: Encourage younger kids to think about how everyone can change and grow, even when they make mistakes. For older children, discuss how we all have the ability to learn and become better individuals through Jesus and how our past doesn't have to define our future.

How do you think our lives change because of meeting Jesus?

Guide for Discussion: With younger children, focus on being kind to others. Older kids can explore the idea of embracing forgiveness and new beginnings, just like Saul did when he became Paul. Talk about how we can help others see the good news of love and hope through our actions.
