Text

Have someone read aloud Revelation 12:10-14

When we see the ferocity and hatred with which our enemy attacks us, it can become easy to be distracted from the truth. However, let us remember the words of Romans 8: “If God is for us, who is against us? He did not even spare his own Son but gave him up for us all. How will he not also with him grant us everything? Who can bring an accusation against God’s elect? God is the one who justifies... No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.”

3. What does it look like to “not love your life to the point of death” as you follow Jesus, even though we are blessed to live in a place and time where we don’t have to fear for our lives because of our faith?

Prayer

At the end of your conversation, spend some time praying as a group. Here is a prompt:

How do you feel Satan has been trying to attack you lately? Spend some time praying for one another that the Lord would empower us by the “blood of the lamb and the word of our testimony” to overcome those attacks.
