Jeconiah: The Problem in Matthew's Genealogy

Jeremiah 22:30 records the Lord saying about Jeconiah, "None of his descendants will succeed in sitting on the throne of David or ruling again in Judah." So why does Matthew list Jeconiah?

Introduction

Recap: Why start a gospel with a genealogy? Matthew is trying to make the point that Jesus is a real person who lived in a real timeframe, and has a real lineage.

Discussion

Have someone read aloud Matthew 1:6-16.

Why is Joseph disqualified from being the Messiah's father of the lineage of David?

Have someone read aloud Jeremiah 22:24-30.

How does the use of multiple words repeated (for example: holy, holy, holy) impact the meaning of the text? What are some other biblical examples of this? (There are 7 triplet word usages in the Bible.)

How does understanding Old Testament prophecies inform us as we read the New Testament?

Application

Take some time to personally apply what you have discussed.

Have someone read aloud Luke 3:23-25 in CSB then ESV.

How do the differences between these two translations highlight the difference between Joseph and the other names in the genealogy of Luke?

How does Matthew's purpose for this genealogy differ or go beyond our traditional Western understanding of genealogies?

Pray

At the end of your conversation, spend some time praying as a group. Here Is a prompt:

Pray that as we dig deeper into the text God will continue to reveal more of Himself to us.
