

Missions Sunday: Matthew 28:16-20

Force For Good Near And Far

Week of October 13, 2024

Force for Good: How am I leaving a legacy that matters?

Text

Have someone read aloud Matthew 28:16-20.

What does it look like to live out our God-given calling as we follow Jesus and make disciples every day? The cornerstone of everyone's God-given calling is the great commission! Did you know that making disciples is a command from Jesus? One of the most important legacies we will leave is the people we disciple. So who are you helping take one step closer to Jesus?

Discussion Questions

1. Which part of the Great Commission resonates with you the most? Why?
2. What does it mean to you to be a force for good?
3. When we engage in this missional call, how do we experience the presence of Jesus with us?

Application

KNOW

1. Have you ever engaged with local or global mission opportunities? What was that experience like?
2. How well do you know about the needs of others and opportunities to serve? Is there a particular missional field that interests you? Why?

PRAY

3. Is there a particular people group that you feel burdened to serve or share the gospel with? Why?

GO

4. What is one thing you can do this semester to be a force for good? Commit to holding each other accountable for following through with this. (See a variety of opportunities linked below.)

Prayer

At the end of your conversation, spend some time praying as a group. Here are some prompts:

1. Pick one or several of the unengaged or unreached people groups to pray for. Pray that they would be able to hear and respond to the Gospel of Christ.
